W. A. Day Warns Insurance Heads of Cost of Peoples' Extravagance.

DIME TO VALLE A HALT

Battle With Improvidence Is Needed-Many Attend Life Risk Convention.

was predicted yesterday by William Day, president of the Equitable Life surance Society, that unless the rican people check their present abits of extravagance and substitute efor reasonable thrift and economy o such . catastrophe as the panic nich followed the civil war is certain overtake them.

Mr. Day issued his warning at the an convention of the Association of held at the Hotel Astor. His adwas devoted principally to a dis-in of the significance of the ining volume of life insurance, but he explained the prosperity as a It of the war has increased the life insurance to $7,712,000,or $3,010,000,000 more in 1919 than as written in 1915, he said "the other de of the shield" showed that general agance is but of all proportion to thrift indicated by the purchase of ngurance policies

"It is true," he said, "that our na-lonal wealth has increased as measured dollars, but this is largely due to the at a greater rate than the

The war thrust upon us an unnat-ural and unbalanced prosperity and left exceptor as a legacy of inflation, speculation and approvidence. A large volume of easy oney has found its way into the na-mal Treasury and into the pockets of any people to whom a substantial cash arplus was a new and tempting pos-ssion. There has followed pee of improvident and self indulgent ies a passion for expenditure, the uit of pleasure and the purchase of non-essentials, without parallel Production Drops Behind.

of life, but he eagerly pays high falling was described.

If the place Mr. Strong for luxuries and other non-essen-tly articles of adornment, and in the les since the armistice would-if they available-stayyer belief.

"The war almost stopped the con we quarters. Thus we find rents reach-had wasted his strength by this time, testimony generated for the blows inflicted on Nina and to cannot afford it prefer to pay them Suzaane were less ferocious than the ed many people to seek more expen-quarters. Thus we find rents reachmodest others had been thousands of good men who jave been hoping for years for a chance why by a snug sum each month now sed with the spending mania. They continue permanently and that they live forever to enjoy it.

Spending Cruze Spreads.

"Our wasteful spending is not coming

Our people were finally brought to nibbled. There was no fite in the furtheir senses by the great panic of 1873, pace, but the flame under the hot water which resulted in lumense losses, the heater in the cellar was burning. ostration of business and an enormous irmy of unemployed people, all of which finally led to the great railroad strike be abandoning the saving habit and be abandoning the saving habit and Dr. Carlisle and Dr. Armstrong said ton street, who said that the present luxury, with production far behind last night there was nothing to indicate the armstrong said ton street, who said that the present luxury, with production far behind last night there was nothing to indicate the saving increasing demand, with a that drugs of any kind had been used.

They said that the blows the two little and illegal." It is returnable before the with these and other factors girls had received were sufficient to actually a little and little and little and illegal. It is returnable before the with these and other factors girls had received were sufficient to actually little and illegal. It is returnable before the with these and other factors girls had received were sufficient to actually little and illegal. It is returnable before the saving that the present production of the present production for the received were sufficient to actually little and illegal. It is returnable before the present production for the present produ ple abandoning the saving habit and was worth looking into. apending what they have for pleasure and luxury, with production far behind of living, the imperative need of the he gospel of thrift and saving among us of the day took in the housing oblem, the agricultural situation, the and the relation of the funds of insur-ance policy holders to all of them. In section to Mr. Day the speakers were Miss Ni Sie Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance hamton. Canada; Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad; Will-Walter S. Rankin and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University

PRICES OF SILKS TO ADVANCE SHORTLY

Shortage Both in Labor and Raw Materials.

Special Desputch to THE AUX. ANTIC CITY, Dec. 4 .- Prices of silks shortly to be advanced, according P.M. uncement made here to-day by ufacturers appearing before the As-ited Dress Industries of America in pt ovaver for in The Breakers. akers asserted that they are under eract to mill capacity, while the sup-of raw allk is rapidly decreasing. ddition they complained that labor less efficient in the mills despite the act that wages had been increased. They that Japan, which supplied much the raw silk, had labor problems cost of dressing women in Amerand in supplying raiment for the ies would represent a turn over the coming year f $40,000,000, in algment of David Mesosyohn, the ithe director of the association,

SEES PANIC UNLESS CRAZED IN NIGHT, HE DR. DAY CHARGES

Continued from First Page.

person to see Mr. Strong alive. Now enter the two neighbors' children. Catherine Mott, 13 years old, and Ruth Schmitt, 14, who live a short distance from the Strongs. They and Nina and Suzanne Strong were in the habit of gro-ing together to School No. 11. As the Strong children did not appear on Wednesday morning their chums went on without them. On their way home in the afternoon they stopped at the strong residence and rang the bell to "frame him" on a bogus charge of there was no response. The children taking graft for favors to owners of stands in the West Washington Markov thought the whole family must have gone out of town. The same thing a dealer is received to the control of the control have gone out of town. The same thing a dealer in poultry to swear that the happened yesterday, but not satisfied initials "D. D." on the back of a $500 with the silence in the house the Mott check meant "Dr. Day," and that when the Mott check meant "Dr. Day," and that when the silence in the house and to the the dealer declined to do so be was back door of the house and rapped. No locked in a room for several hours. The dealer later made an affidavit which Dr. answer.

Wounded Girl Agerents.

Milic bottles, full, two days supply, arming to the front porch the children Insurance Presidents, which is the gas is leaking and they are all un-this affidavit, which was verified on June sheld at the Hotel Astor. His ad-conscious." That thought impelled them 17, before the powers that be." bang again and again at the front or. The door opened.

> was so pale and so peculiar that the other girls asked both together what the matter was "Everybody here is sick," Then Nina's sister, Suzanne came to the door. Her appearance was even worse.

The neighbors' children could make nothing of it all except that there must be some disease in the house. At the suggestion they ran away. On the sidewalk they passed Dr. Carlisle, who had come in response to the telephone message from Nina Strong, who had been unable to tell him anything except that everybody was sick and he must come tigation of

After making a hurried investigation who were still alive, Dr. Carlisle called Dr. Robert R. Armstrong, the county physician, and Benjamin S. Turner, captain of detectives. They went to all the rooms and to the cellar. They reasoned that this is what must have taken Sometime Tuesday night Mr. Strong, who had a bedroom on the second floor "As a result of the labor shortage and in which also slept his wife, had got up, her war conditions our products have and with his mind probably already and will his mind products and are consumed faster than we could askew hard dipped into his copy of the case of John J. Dempsey, former roduce of exhausted. The high prices like investigators found this book on a like investigators found this book on a late the appetite of the spenditrift. He dresser open and held open by a match manifester, must go to the jury. otests as vigorously as the provident hox at pages 96 and 97, where the an against the high cost of the neces-plight of a minister who felt his powers and for early service he is often had gone to the cellar and got the There has, as every one knows, been extraordinary increase in the price musical instruments, automobiles, blow with the blade of the according to the price musical instruments. Automobiles, blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow with the blade of the according to the price blow. ng to pay a premium above the mar- family axe, which had a handle about raordinary increase in the price her suit with a single blow. A second case. Stephen M. Baldwin, counsel for sical instruments, autômobiles, blow with the blade of the axe distinguished between the defence, moved for the dismissal of the articles of adorment, and in the beth was asleep in an adjoining room. I travel and amusement, and of From the position of her body it seemed was no evidence to sustain it. Mr. Warbasse called the attention of the room and administered a similar blow to Court was adjourned early to give his son Nathaniel. The two smaller Mr. Baldwin an opportunity to confer uetion of homes, and prosperity has girls had a room together. Apparently with associate counsel and determine used many people to seek more expen-

To that fact they owe their lives, Supposing that he had made a com-plete job of it. Mr. Strong then went to

In their gentle questioning of the two slow from current carnings. Many who ander ordinary circumstances would not little girls at the hospital the authorities think of indulging in extravagance are could get no information as to when the murders and suicide and the attack on people in all walks of life. Nearly every one seemed willing to save their surplus earnings.

acted as if they had been drugged. He lly led to the great railroad strike found in one of the bedrooms a glass of the acts of pillage and destruction milk and two bottles containing a grayish fluid. In the bathroom was a wet Our battle with improvidence, at least cloth. Capt. Turners was not prepared for the immediate future, must be to say that Mr. Strong had chloroformed cause why women shanned with due regard for all these his family before attacking them with field as jurous and the extraordinary conditions. With so many the axe, but said that the possibility on the voting lists.

living, the imperative need of the it possible that the children were uncor-ur is an extraordinary effort to spread sclous until a short time before Nina Strong telephoned Dr. Carlisle. The de ectives agreed that Mr. Strong's mind The convention of life insurance offi- must have given way as he lay in bed cials at which Mr. Day spoke is being and that when he got up his purpose it brided by insurance officers from all was to get the axe and obey his homi-wor the United States and Canada. Discided impulse. Late investigation indicated that Mr. Strong had had financial reverses, that his illness had deafened him partly and that he was much wor-rigd about his health.

Mrs. Strong before her marriage was

Miss Nina Colville. She lived in Bing-

Fire Records

James Koviass

James Koviass

Life-75 and 27 New Chambers st.;
Sunshine Lighting Fixture
Co.
Trifling

List-43 W. 19th st.; unknown. Unknown
Sou-51s W. 37th st.; Ash Removal Corporation. Unknown

1:10-31 Maiden lane; Newall Mig.
Co.
The Bronx.

9:30-1318 Roston rd., The Bronx; Dr. Morris Mason.......Triffing P.M.
1150-461 E. 170th st. The Bronx:
Morris Katz
1150-466 E. 12th st. Angelo Sado Triffing 3:10-11 Downing st.; city prop-5:25-4th av. and 19th st.; Hodgon Triffing of BUYING ORGIE ENDS KILLS WIFE AND SON Says His Story to Grand Jury Will Interest the Mayor.

Jonathan C. Day, removed by Mayor Hylan from the Commissionership of to his home. Mr. Gaston was the last Public Markets, testified again before the Extraordinary Grand Jury yesterday regarding the profits from the city's sale of surplus army food. He was accompanied by his counsel, Mayer C. Gold> man of 7 Beekman street. Before entering the Grand Jury room Dr. Day said he expected to tell about

Day said he was willing to show to the Grand Jury. "When I got wind of how the city official tried to frame me," Dr. Day said, 'I went to Mayor Hylan and told him my grievances. He seemed to be abso-ble newspapers of two days lying on the floor. Ruth said to Catharine: "Maybe be aroused now because I intend to get

Dr. Day is still hot after Edwin J. oor. The door opened.

Nina Strong appeared, holding herself Markets Commissioner last month and brothers in the case. This comedy, pre-Nina Strong appeared, holding assess whom Mayor Hylan appointed head of a big buing over her left eye and she the department on Wednesday. He said the trainment from a varsity standpoint—that o'Malley letter to Secretary of that O'Malley letter to Secretary of that O'Malley letter to Secretary of that o'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the that O'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the that O'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the that O'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the that O'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the that O'Malley letter to Secretary of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the the department on the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the department of the dear was so pale and so peculiar that the department of the department against Dr. Day's interference with the resale of foods was "written in desperation in order to prevent my controlling and that the letter was written after O'Malley's dismissal from the deputy's > missioner of Markets," Dr. Day added. voted many months to a sweeping invesevery book, record, document and transaction in my department without being able to furnish the Mayor with any substantial reasons that he could give the public for removing me.

MALBONE TUNNEL CASE TO GO TO JURY

Trial of Traction Official. Justice Kapper, in the Supreme Court at Mineola, I. I., ruled yesterday that Justice Refuses to Dismiss mansiaughter, must go to the jury. Dempsey was indicted for having been the primary cause of the Malbone street tunnel wreck on the B. R. T. November 10 o'clock to-day.

OPERA LANDMARK BURNED.

New Orleans Structure Saw Debut of Adelina Patti.

NEW OBLEANS, Dec. 4.—The historic the bathroom, stood the axe in a corner. French Opera House, at Bourbon and got out his razor, and standing over a Toulouse streets, seens of the debut in got out his razor, and standing over a Toulouse streets, seene of the debut in wash basin in front of a mirror, cut his the United States of Adelina Patti and throat almost from ear to ear. The where many of the most noted singers jugular vein was severed. He fell over backward and was found dead on the stroyed early to-day by fire. The loss was estimated at $200,000.

The opera house was erected sixty years ago, being formally opened in December, 1859.

During the civil war the house was closed, but in 1866 it was reopened. The "Why wait for adversity to teach us them actually occurred. They were so this lesson as we did after our great stupefied as apparently not to know what the large company of artists, and that war. The extraordinary demand that war. The extraordinary demand. They did not know how long they for labor had increased wages abnormally. A frenzy of extravagance seized second in the passage of the pass bls wife.

DEMANDS WOMEN JURORS. awyer Obtains Writ Aiding Then

to Get on Pauels. Justice Scudder in the Supreme Court.

Brooklyn, signed an order yesterday directing the Board of Assessors to show why a writ of mandamus should not be issued requiring them cause why women should not be qualified as jurors and their names carried monteo's Amount to $12,727.

MANY AT FREUND ART SALE.

first day's sale of the Karl Freund collection, heid at Delmonico's yesterday afternoon. The total sales amounted to $12,727. Mrs. Ward Douglas purchased a pair of eighteenth century cut crystal lustres, mounted on glass steps, for $800. Miss Elisie de Wolfe securad a lot of printed French linen designed by Vera, for $282. T. L. Onativia, agent

Looms bought thirty-three different lots of art objects for a total of $3,649.

RENT CASES CLOG COURT.

Three Justices Will Help to Clear Calendar by Holidays.

Rent cases in The Bronx have devel-Tubes Triding oped so widely that between 5,000 and 5,000 ares are pending in the Municipal courts. In response to an appeal for aid from Presiding Justices Harry Robitzek. Catalano Triffing

1.15 Bridge at and City island
av. The Bronx; Mrs. Freund. Triffing

1.16 - 12 W. Iti at: Bayer &
Bayer Triffing

1.15 - 22 E 72 a Gottfriel Baking Co. Unknown

1.16 - 13 E 72 a Gottfriel Baking Co. Unknown

1.10 - 13 a great very Frink Casts:

In response to appear to all course. In response to appear to all course. In response to all papears appear to all course. In response to appear to all course. In response to all papears appear to all course. In response to all papears appears to all course. William Morris and Peter Shell, three Justices Sampson Priediander. Agron Districts and Peter Shell, three Justices Sampson Priediander. Agron Lovy and Jacob Mark, were assigned vesturiate from Manifactum.

With this assistance Judge Roblitak hopes to set through the overgrowded calendars before the holidays are over all the fronce of the proposition of the sine W. and St. Mrs. Portaing The Judges met yesterday in the Brooks 5:15-111 W. and St. Mrs. Portains analy avenue court and decided to prevent ambly pl. and Rector st. exteriors if possible during the holiday Trinity pi. and Restor st. eviction packing boxes; unknown .. Trining ecason.

'THREE'S A CROWD, BATTALION IN NOISE

Scene of Comedy Is Laid in Stratford on Avon, Home of Shakespeare.

FOUR VOW TO SAVE GIRL

Then Things Happen to Support Name of New Play at Cort Theatre.

"Three's a Crowd"-At the Cort Theatre Capt. John Blair, A.E.F. Allan Dinehart Philip Kent. Byron Bensley Beatrice Moreian Mrs. Kent. The Rev. Joseph Tilleymess, Walter McEwer Jesephine Vincent.

Billy King Charles Compton Sir Man Forbes Harold De Besite Peter WhitneyRoy Gordon To be quite frank, the opening of "Three's a Crowd" at the Cert Theatre last night should have been reviewed undergrads, ateo service as a dramatic criti lege students are so advanced newadays, reading Freud and sometimes the Bible some very antiquated gentleman, who had received his theatrical baptism of fire during the heyday of "Charley's Aunt," should have been conscripted as a reviewer, provided he retained the javenile viewpoint which enjoyed all the romping practical jokes timeworn now, which were then considered novel technical tricks on the stage. How such a theatrical reporter have liked bursting a blood vessel from laughing at Charles Compton skating ound the stage in women's clothes and masquerading es a cook hadly in surrendered to hysterics when the heroine's father, who was a fiend for mind reading and spiritualism, willed that the cook should bring him the latter that was a valuable family heiranshed into fragments in order to make good climax for the second act.

But the trouble with one reviews to have a good time from all this-Perhaps the offering suffered too sons were killed.

Immediately after Herbert N. Warbasse. Assistant District Attorney, announced that the people had closed their case. Stephen M. Baldwin, counsel for the defence, moved for the leafure of the leafure of the leafure.

Into the Blue Boar Ian at Stratfor wander three demobilized-one almost of travel and amusement, and so foods, endly, &c. There are so that she either awoke before the and foods, endly, &c. There are so that she either awoke before the and people with surplus cash who are descended and tried to get away, or eight nel approach, which would have stopped the train automatically, and Justice Kent, as life was meant to be in stand-the train automatically, and Justice are farees. They find a letter she has are farees. They find a letter she has are farees. all are in love with the same Kathleen ard farces. They find a letter she has written asking a certain "Joe" to go away in her company "with no luggage and no ceremony," and not knowing that or not the defence will offer Joe is her girl friend, Josephine Vincent, when the trial is resumed at the young gallants pay their beloved he compliment of fearing the worst. However, each wagers he'll not only save the girl but win her for himself, and then the battle of legs and lungs is inn attracted the eye, and there wasn't o much hopping around and bellowing But the second act setting in the Kente' drawing room was done in an cendiary yellow and the tone of the act tself had the same amount of agitation.

Into this home the four young men American as another mind reader. ectric repairer wearing cordurous and of its condition now, monocle and a third as a piano tuner, sho struck the right pitch with the who struck the right pitch with strings by yowling to them and who in-troduced the romantic pinnacle of the play by mouthing "I Love You Truly" off key. Part of the broad farce to which the play descended at this point consisted in outdoing "Charley's Aunt" with firtatious scenes between the mas-querading cook and the senile mind reader, who apparently wasn't psychic enough to read the masculine thoughts of his kitchen potentate.

But it was all so noisy it could truly be said "Three's a Crowd" was a mis-namer, for when they all got going it sounded more like a battalion—a labor buttallon. It seemed as if the authors, Christopher Morley and Earl Derr Big gers, took to heart the lines of on heir characters, "Do your worst," and sult was comparable to the shattered platter. Phase Foster as Kathleen was uncer tain about the proper amount of coy nees, and was at her best when she con fixed herself to wearing her fetching gowns. Allan Dinehart in playing the American, was best among the men cause he was the most natural, but the others just skylarked. It was the sort of thing one sees at parties or wedding showers. Mark Twain's query, "Is Shakespeare Dend" is surely answered by this play, for he must be after what happened in his home town last night.

WOMAN STEALS GEMS AND FLEES IN MOTOR

She Escapes.

store of Armin Hollinger in 1216 Third avenue last night and asked to be shown was placed upon the counter sh and started toward the front of the es ter light. A man outside swung the or open as though to enter, and be-re Hollinger or fullus Miller, his clerk, realized what was bannening the woman ran across the sidewalk and jumped into in automobile which was drawn up at

Hollinger and Miller darted forward in arsult. The man who had held open ne store door followed the woman into the waiting motor car and a revolver was fired through one of its curtained indows as it moved down Third ave Hollinger telephoned to Police Headquar and masquerating os a cook lady in the latter and detectives who were sent found surrendered to hysteries when the no trace of the automobile nor any one who had noted the number on the license

Miller told the detectives the woman first had called at the store just after It "The Whirlwind," by George C. Hazel-ton and Ritter Brown, will take the oom, and the cook brought it to him was opened for business Monday morning. She asked to see diamond rings then, but was told they had not been Standard out of the slough of the one aken out of the safe. She left, saying the would return some evening during the missing rings are of life at popular prices -meaning that $150, another at $700 two upper West Side residents can the week. Two of the missing rings are valued together at $450, another at $700 and the fourth at $200.

URGES BUSINESS TO FIGHT THE RADICALS Dr. Eaton Tells Wool Men to Americanize Workers.

Threatened domination of American industry by radical labor must be fought to a finish now, said Dr. Charles A. Eaton, former clergyman, engaged in daughter of Billie Burke, who made her said demoralized—British soldlers and a Americanization work, to several hun-first visit to the theatre to see her homeward bound American Captain, all dred members of the American Associa-mother in "Czesar's Wife," and who beof whom have met during the war, and tion of Woolen and Worsted Manufac- came a starring spectator. When Miss all are in love with the same Kathleen turers at their eleventh annual dinner. Burke took a curtain call her daughlast night at the Waldorf.

Dr. Eaton declared that American in the wing, stepped out and took it manufacturers must "put a soul into industry" and make it an educational force to turn out citizens as well as merchan-raised the salaries of both of them on dustry" and make it an educational force | piece.

Sometimes I wonder if religion has done more harm than good in the world, man is the foreman. ness makes that man into a citizen as Butterfield of the

he said. "To-day the chief order of civili-zation is industry, and the one force Equity Association at the association's zation is industry, and the one force Equity Association at the association's welcomed last night eighty young women most dominant in the life of the young licket offices in the Hotel Algonquin will who are to marry ex-service men and Unless your busi- be put on sentry duty by Capt. Everett two war brides who arrived from Glaswell as a worker you are falling down mittee, who learned how to handle activities Broadbent, whose husband was in the building of democracy. Our bust-tresses and mules in the army. Marjorie the navy and lives at Revenue, Ohio. well as a worker you are raining down in the building of democracy. Our business in this country has been an autoracy. It must become a democracy. Harden B. Metcalf, president of the Martin B. Metcalf, president of the bilt, Julia Dean, Ethel Intropidi and valid a marriage evenmony performed by which recognizer as bilt, Julia Dean, Ethel Intropidi and valid a marriage evenmony performed by writing the American Ship and Commerce of the way and a marriage evenmony performed by wall as a worker you are ining down in the winds. It is not a constant with a marriage and the name of the support of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage even on the other side under the particular tensor of the marriage of th American credits to revive Europe must count on the unlimited possibilities c' tentot," the comedy by Victor Mapes carriage was Americanized by a clergy-which Sam H. Harris will produce carry man. The rest of the young women will and her cargo, made up mostly of forms in January in order to give E. D. Lunn, be escorted to their bridgersoms by stuffs sent by Americans to relatives of the socioty.

Germany, are a total loss. habilitated continental trade regardless

LURES CRANE BACK

He Will Appear in "Captain Warren's Wards," Custom Made for Him.

ALL RED' THEATRE CHAIN

Canada Will Have All-British Circuit Reaching From Coast to Coast.

nipeg it was announced that the merger

Cort to Extend His Chain.

will hereafter be given a longer leas-

Beginning with Christmas

William H. Crane, whose soul, warming impersonations of elderly gentlemen lacking the last few have been sadly years as a sedative for jazz, will re-turn to shimmy torn New York. It is announced he will present all the virtues inseparable from growing old in a comedy by Frank Howe, Jr., custom made for him from a novel by Joseph C. Lincoin, the most modern exponent of the staying powers of the b'gosh school of the cagle

This is "Capt. Warren's Words," and the form fitting role of Capt. Warren Mr. Crane feels he has all the geniality Pistol Fired at Pursuers as he can use. Lack of play with a sym woman walked into the John Cort intends to extend the all Brondway chain with his Standard Theatre, beginning with Mimi Aguglis in her first throes with the English language. Mmc. Aguglia, appearing in erowd in for the price of one ticket downtown, not to mention the sodus Under the management of Richard Walton Tully, Guy Bates Post celebrated in Denver last night his thou-sandth appearance in 'The Musquerader," thereby beating the Post re ord set up in Tully's "Omar the Tent-maker," which ran for 988 performmaker." ances before its tents were folded up.

At a recent performance in the Libter, who had been sitting with a nurse > the spot. A group of Broadway dramatic and musical stars who will sell tickets for me puetry about it. Now that "Aphrodite" in the Century Theatre has been purged it is fairly safe to state that Gabrielle Ravine, the Bel-gian actress now portraying a gypsy fortune teller with Ethel Barrymore in "Declassee" in the Empire, was the original Aphrodite in Paris—though this information is liable to bring forth a sauctimonious roar from Miss Civic Purity atop the Municipal Building.

The British rights to "Irene," the musical comedy in which Edith Day sports the title role in the Vanderbilt Theatre, have been sold by Carle Carlton, president of the producing company, to J. L. Sacks of London, where it is understood Sir Alfred Butt will be in Carl information to liable to bring forth a understood Sir Alfred Butt will be in co the pot when it is sent across in the Galety Theatre in February. John Charles Thomas of "Apple Blossoms" in the Globe Theatre has obtained permission from the big boss, who is none other than Charles Dillingham, to give a limited number of recitals here, starting in the cold of January, when his voice will need warming up for the operetta.

It is announced that Dorris Duane, playing the French maid in "Scandin the Thirty-ninth Street Theatre, giving Francine Larrimore, the star, her initial lessons in the language of Carpentier. According to a recent in-terview Miss Larrimore already knows Anchor liner Columbia to counteract that tongue-but evidently this is stage I rench she's learning.

QUEENS BUILDERS RIOT. Expedition in Automobiles Attacks Workers on Cottages.

ne can use. Liera of piny with a pathetic part is the reason why Mr. Crane's twinkle has for so long been in eclipse in California, but now his mellow dialect can renew its strength like Four touring cars, said by the police Queens, yesterday and the occupants Canada is to have a chain of "all red" heatres from coast to coast, which During the next half hour a pitched buttle waged in which 150 men joined bricks, clubs and hatchets were used "We are not here on a financial capital waged in which the bricks of the buttle waged in which the buttle waged waged in which the buttle waged waged in which the buttle waged wage sn't mean that they're to be Boishevisite, but simply that British plays and players are to be given the preference, so that it can truly be said the sun Bricks, clubs and hatchets were used ver sets on the British drama. Martin Harvey, English actor manager, will send twenty-one British companies over and James Cumningham, 301 West Twenty-first street, both of Manhattan, were dragged from the running board of one of the machines. They said they were business agents of Manhattan locals of the Richterhood of Carpenters and Jointop in the near future, which shows that Great Britain got a giant ship like with a lease of western theatres run-ning for ten years from last Monday. the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Join-ers of America. In the Jamaics Police Court Magistrate Kochendorfer held would establish a chain of houses beginning in Halifax and ending in Victoria, Thursday on a charge of felonious as-

$560 FOR A HADEN ETCHING. First Sale From Print Collection

Amounts to $9,977.50.

tchings, "Mytton Hall," sold last night that it supported and Flanagan and Kleine collections, to Meder & Co. for $560, heading all the ices. Mr. Meder also gave $280 for $390 Dinant." Kennedy & or No. 36, Cameron's for No. 42. Cameron's "Joannis Darius." and $520 for Cameron's "Canongate Telbooth." C. A. Kraushaar paid $250 for No. 37. Cameron's "Two Bridges"; 55 Hedley Fiston's Swann, ngent, bought No. 63, Hedley Fitton's "St. Maclow, Rouen," and No. 93, Seymour Haden's "Early Morning.

The total for the sale was $9,977.50.

WAR BRIDES GREETED. Eighty Girls, Who Soon Will Be,

Also Arrive From Glasgow. Workers of the Travelers Aid Society

ULSTERITES ARRIVE TO FIGHT SINN FEIN

Six Protestant Clergymen Here to Institute a Counter Propaganda.

THEY WILL TOUR U. S.

William Coote, M. P. for South Tyrone, Says Irish Republie Does Not Exist.

Six Irish clergymen representing the Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopallan churches, headed by William Coote, M. P. from South Tyrone, arrived last evening from Moville by the in America the propagands of the Sinn Feiners. Although there were travelling in the cabin with the clerical party a score or more of Irish believing in the Sinn Fein movement, including two young priests, the trip was internally harmonious, but very bolsterous otherto have carried a dozen men each, drew up in front of a row of cottages being spected in Farmers avenue. Holls, ttacked the workmen employed there, and Mr. Coote gave out a typewritten by the combatants and more than twenty paign. Money is not our object. Where on a political campaign persons were injured. are not here on a political campaign.

The attackers escaped in their automobiles upon the approach of the police. Icans and British politics for Britishers. Two men who described themselves as We are here in the interest of law and ohn Savage, 212 West 128th street, order, of truth and honesty, of fair play

"Our mission is to say to America that the Sinn Feln movement in Ireland Court Magistrate Kochendorfer held which is spreading its propega to them in $2,000 ball for examination next America, is not a solution of the Irih question; that it is radical and destructive in its methods; that it is confective in Ireland a campaign of conot supported or respected by the better type of people in Ireland, whether Cath-olic or Protestant, who have no menested or prejudiced motive: that if One of Seymour Haden's beautiful the party of rebellion during the war; at the American Art Association sale of enuse of the foe, and that it was a traitor to the ailled cause.

"Naturally in America you would favor a republican form of government The Sinn Fein calls itself a republi L. Salomar paid $300 tor So. Cameron's "Belfry of Bruges," State for No. 40. Cameron's "Reinedy & Co. gave $250 on 26. Cameron's "Veronica," $480 concerning the British Government is concerning the British Research to the British Resear Russia. Their methods are nilke. The the Government. truthful propaganda. We are here to inform the American public on the real situation. We know our mission will have a wide hearing, for the report of your fair play and honor is abroad in The elected members of the are the Revs. Wylle Blue and William Corkey, Preslaterians; the Rev. F. E. Harte, Edward Hazleton and P. Wesley Maguire, Methodists, and the Rev. Dillem Crooks, Episcopalian. The Rev. Dr. David G. Wylfe, general secretary of the Preslate. oard of church erecting of the Presby erlan Church, who was among the wo various cities of the country.

that a meeting at the Presbyterian House, 155 Fifth avenue, would map out Manton B. Metcall, president of the association, was toastmaster, and other speakers were Douglass Mallock and Dwight W. Morrow of J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. Morrow, speaking on the subject of international trade, declared that the side of William Collier in 'The Hotward on the subject of international trade, declared that count on the unlimited possibilities of the comedy by Victor Mapes count on the unlimited possibilities of the comedy by Victor Mapes which Sam H. Harris will produce early which Sam H. Harris will produce early which Sam H. Harris will produce early the count of the voice of the count authorities that the couple are man and wife.

A Travelers Ald worker went away and that her crew escaped and landed at the fate of carriage was Americanized by a clergy-the count of the comedy by Victor Mapes with Mr. and Mrs. Because and the count of th

